

KING EDWARD IS HARDEST WORKED MAN IN THE WORLD

Strenuousness of His Life Said to Exceed
Even That of President
Roosevelt.

London, July 27.—King Edward, beyond all manner of doubt, is the hardest worked, busiest man in Great Britain, if not in the world. Americans are wont to boast of the strenuousness of President Roosevelt, but Mr. Roosevelt leads a comparatively easy life.

Edward has been king more than six years. Mr. Roosevelt has been president a little less than that time. King Edward is 67 years of age. Mr. Roosevelt is 48. A comparison between their daily lives cannot fail to show that, notwithstanding the 19 years between them, the seemingly placid king of England is a much busier man with his gray whiskers than the strenuous president of the United States and his big stick.

For example, the king has just returned from an official visit to Scotland, Ireland and Wales—an expedition filled from morning till midnight with drives, receptions, tours of inspection, official functions and bowings and scrapings to the multitude. At home it is nearly if not quite as bad. Hunting wildcats or shaking hands occasionally with a few thousands are pleasures to these jobs.

Looks After Them All.
Does the king of Spain seem a little peevish as far as the English are concerned?

King Edward goes over to Madrid, hands him a gumdrop for the baby and tells him to be good.

Does the king of Italy fancy that he has been slighted about something?

King Edward hastens down Rome-way, shakes him by the royal mitt in a fatherly way and tells him to forget it.

It was the busy Edward who jolted the French government into the liveliest sort of friendship after decades of soreheadedness at anything English.

It is the king also who has to go over and cool off his nephew, der kaiser, whenever William breathes hard and gazes upon his sword with glittering eyeballs.

And so it goes year in, year out; but to these and hundreds of other official duties are added countless social duties—a burden of responsibilities which would utterly overwhelm a man at any age of life who had not been thoroughly trained to them by years of strictest schooling.

King Edward continues to be the arbiter of fashion for all Britain, if not for all the world, as he has been for 45 years or more. At present his majesty wears a frock coat with very wide lapels of silk. The points of these are brought quite low down, to the third or fourth button on the waistcoat. There the coat is held in position by two onyx links mounted in metal.

King Edward still adheres to the style he inaugurated, of having his trousers creased at the right side instead of at the front—a style which is slowly winning a hard, hard battle against the old custom. # FEARED DEATH AT HIGHBINDER'S HANDS

Prescott Chinaman Killed Himself After Receiving Notice From Society.

Prescott, Ariz., July 27.—Given the alternative of being killed by a "hatchet man," or being hanged, or making way with himself, Tong Queen, for many years a leading figure in the Chinese colony here, and a successful merchant, chose the latter method and at an early hour yesterday morning took an overdose of raw opium, mixed with some decoction resembling tea, from the effects of which he died in the afternoon.

The unfortunate Chinaman was found yesterday morning in the vicinity of the Citizens' cemetery, lying under a tree, unconscious. By his side was a tomato can, partially filled with water, and a cup containing a mixture resembling tea. The sheriff's office was at once notified by Robert K. Porter, who learned of the suicide through one of the street car conductors, and Sheriff Lowry drove to the scene at once, taking the suffering Chinaman to the Mercy hospital, where Drs. McNally and Yount endeavored to revive him, but he succumbed before they arrived, being brought to the hospital.

Feared Highbinders.
An inquest was held in the afternoon, and a verdict returned to the effect that Queen committed suicide. The body was then removed to Ruffner's undertaking establishment, to be prepared for shipment to the Flowery Kingdom.

For two weeks past the dead Chinaman has known that death was stalking him, as he had been informed by a local Tong that the death sentence had been passed upon him, and that a "hatchet man" was even then en route from San Francisco to carry out the death sentence, unless he saw fit to kill himself. Terror stricken, and daily seeing the death trap closing upon him, Queen decided to end his earthly career himself, rather than let the imported highbinder carry out the death sentence. Accordingly, about 9 o'clock, Friday night, he announced to his intimates in the Chinese district that he had made up his mind to die, and was preparing for it even then. After arranging a number of details concerning his business and his earthly possessions, Queen left the store and was not again seen until found unconscious under the tree near the cemetery.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by all dealers.

Bring us your job work. Prices the very lowest and the work will stand inspection anywhere. Business and calling cards a specialty.

RUSSIAN ROBBED OF $300 ON TRAIN

Seat Mate Took Money While Immigrant Was Fast Asleep.

Douglas, Ariz., July 27.—A Russian who could speak but little English, arrived in Douglas this morning from El Paso and reported to the officers that he was robbed on the way by a man who occupied the same seat with him in a car. The name of the victim was not given to the officers, but he stated that, falling in with a fellow countryman, the two sat together and soon became confidential. During the night after the men had talked long, both when he awoke his newly made friends were gone, and as a souvenir of their short acquaintance, he discovered a hole cut in his shirt. As the hole was suspiciously near a roll of bills which he had sewed on the inside of his undershirt, he made an investigation and found the money gone.

$300 in Five Dollar Bills.
The roll consisted of $300 all in $5 bills, not one of which had been left. The man had a ticket to Douglas so continued his trip, arriving here this morning. He was able to give a fairly good description of the man who sat beside him and who, he believes to be the one who robbed him.

A man answering his description is known to have left the train a short distance this side of Hachita. The man who is suspected as having committed the robbery is described as being about 24 years of age, weighs about 160 pounds, is of light complexion and wore a grey suit. His left hand was powdered burned, which fact, the officer believed, that he was a miner. He got practically all the money his victim had, and the man is disconsolate over his loss. Telegrams have been sent out notifying officers at points where it is thought likely the robber will go.
